Council/Committee hearing bill: Select Committee to Protect Private Property Rights

Representative(s) Galvano, Cannon, and Kravitz offered the following:

Amendment

Between lines 307 and 308, insert:

(2) Private property is condemnation-eligible if the current condition of the property poses an existing threat to public health or public safety that is likely to continue absent the exercise of eminent domain as evidenced by at least one of the following factors:

(a) The property contains a structure which, in its current condition, has substantial dilapidation which is either physically incurable or economically incurable in that the cost of repair of rehabilitation would exceed the replacement cost of a new structure. Superficial or cosmetic disrepair, which is reparable by a nominal expenditure, not to exceed 20% of the market value of the existing structure, shall not constitute dilapidation for purposes of constituting a condemnation-eligible factor;

(b) The property contains a structure which, in its current condition, is unsanitary, unsafe, or vermin-infested, and is designated by the agency responsible for enforcement of the housing, building, or fire codes as unfit for human habitation or use;

(c) The property contains a structure which, in its current condition, is a fire hazard, or otherwise dangerous to the safety of persons or property, and is designated by the agency responsible for enforcement of the housing, building, or fire codes as unfit for human habitation or use;

(d) The property contains a structure from which, in its current condition, the utilities, plumbing, heating, sewerage, or other facilities have been disconnected, destroyed, removed, or rendered ineffective so that the property is unfit for human habitation or use; or

(e) The physical condition, use, or occupancy of the property constitutes a public nuisance and the property has been the subject of code violations affecting public health or public safety that have not been substantially rehabilitated within one year of receipt of notice to rehabilitate from the appropriate code enforcement agency.
